

ABS renews its quality certification in accordance with ISO 9001:2015

We are pleased to announce that recently, our company, ABS (Atlantic Bearing Services), a global reference in the design and manufacture of products and engineering solutions for the heavy industry, has renewed its ISO 9001:2015 quality certification.

ISO 9001:2015 is an internationally recognized standard that sets the requirements for an effective Quality Management System (QMS). The audit for the renewal of this certification was carried out by SGS, the world leader in inspection, verification, testing, and certification. This independent and accredited body thoroughly evaluated our management processes, quality control, and customer satisfaction to confirm that our products and services meet the standard's requirements.

The successful results of this audit underline our ability to provide customized, reliable, and high-performance solutions, capable of performing under the most critical working conditions in the most demanding industries.

We thank our entire team for their continuous dedication and effort, and our customers for their trust and support. We remain committed to continuous improvement and the pursuit of excellence in each of our projects.
